Thanks to Joanne Brennen for taking notes in my absence--Neil

GENERAL MEETING:

1. Meeting called to order at 1:40.

2. Minutes: No report.

3. Treasurer's Report. Larry Brennen gave the report:

Income: $750.00

Expenses: $713.00

Balance: $ 6,805.69

4. Food: Good

5. Sunshine: No report

6. Music: No report

7. Sound: There was an extensive discussion about sound equipment. Bill will look into some options.

8. Gigs: Joanne presented 5 new gigs (see below). All approved.
New business.

1. Nancy Kick proposed we do a pro bono gig for Jean Cote. Joanne will follow up.

2. Motion was made to have Neil draft a letter to the Burkleys awarding them life-time memberships for their service and contributions to the club. Approved.

3. It was suggested that before every performance a sound check be made by having the person that will be using the mike do the check, using their instrument, to make sure it is satisfactory and to their liking.

Moved by Becky to adjourn.

A reminder: after Memorial Day we wear blue shirts and khaki pants.
